

Hemofarm is a member of STADA Group, one of the largest global generic pharmaceutical companies, which successfully operates in both the markets of Serbia and Western Balkans. Hemofarm produces high quality pharmaceutical products within the leading pharmacotherapeutic groups, observing the key corporate values: care, quality, availability and trust.

For more than half century we wish you

because we know that a

GOOD HEALTH IS THE GREATEST WEALTH.

Our Quality Control department– is looking for:

Expert Associate – LIMS and stability software administrator

Profile:

- Faculty of Technical Sciences, computer science (informatics, programming);
- Advanced level of knowledge of MS Office package;
- Experience in programming is an advantage;
- Experience with databases is an advantage;
- Experience with Crystal report is an advantage;
- Proficient English language knowledge;
- Excellent communication skills;
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, dynamic, environment;
- Team-oriented, precise, analytical, responsible, independent;
- Fast learner and easily adaptable to changes.

Duties and tasks:

- Managing LIMS system;
- Managing Stability Study module;
- SAP key user;
- Static data maintenance;
- Managing Laboratory instruments interface with LIMS;
- Managing SAP ERP interface with LIMS;
- Managing users of LIMS/Stability/SAP system;
- Systems improvements tests execution;
- Managing/creating reports;
- Creating/maintenance of functional and technical documentation.

Job offer:

- Continuous learning environment;
- Chance for constant professional and personal development;
- Dynamic and responsible position.

Please send your application (CV and cover letter) to e-mail address ana.stamenkovic@hemofarm.com

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

Deadline for submitting applications: 12/10/2018

